CLARK GOT NO CHECK

Council Will Think Over His Little Bill.

SANT'S ACCOUNT SENT BACK.

It Goes to the Committee Who Signed the Contract—A Street Sweeper Advocated by President Berg, and a Committee Will See One Work in Pittsburg on Thursday—No Bill From the Light Company.

After the long drawn out special sessions of council there was relief in the businesslike manner in which the affairs of the city were discussed last night.

It was almost 8:30 o'clock when President Berg looked down from his seat, and found that Kent and Marshall were the only absentees, but this did not deter him from opening the session by ordering the minutes of three sessions. The resolution accepting the plat of Thompson heirs in which 10 feet is given on Ravine street was placed on third reading, but before the vote was taken Burton called attention to the vast amount of grading necessary.

The president said that the committee were favorable, and Swindells remarked that the dirt could be moved without cost to the city, and the motion carried. The ordinance to appropriate property for the extension of Third street brought an objection from Williams, who moved to amend in such a way that half the cost would fall upon the property-owners and the other half on the city, and in this way the ordinance passed. The Arter bill, brought over from claims committee, called forth an objection from Swindells, who thought these old bills should be investigated. The solicitor was so delighted at this that he promised to help Clerk Hanley look into the matter, for he has been greatly annoyed.

Then came that much-talked-of bill of John Sant, asking $14.80 for his part in the Dow tax refunding matter, and it was clearly evident that it would not be paid just then. Horwell wanted it held over until there was a full meeting of council, and Owen said that if in the opinion of those who had made the contract the claimant had earned his money the bill should be paid. The president said he had made no investigation, and as one of the committee he was not ready to report. Solicitor Clark thought that Mr. Sant, who was in the lobby, might explain, but Swindells wanted it sent back to finance committee. At this point Mr. Sant arose and said "Mr. President, I don't know," but he was cut short by the remark of the president that he could not talk, and his bill went to the finance committee.

Solicitor Clark wanted to know about his bill in the mandamus proceedings, expressing the belief that there was no personal feeling in the matter, but he raised the question whether council was going to pay. If they decided in the negative, he would begin another mandamus, although he wanted council to understand that this was no threat. He cautioned council to obey the law; that the board was an independent body, and his bill had been certified by that body, and council must obey their mandates and the mandates of the law. He would find no fault if council refused to pay. He simply wanted to know what they were going to do about it. Berg believed they should move slowly in the matter, and the solicitor manifested a disposition not to push his claim. Swindells wanted it referred to a committee and Clark firmly stated his idea was to settle what was unsettled, but in the end the bill must be paid. If it came to court litigation would not cost the city a cent, he said, and he would ask the judge to give an alternative writ. After some more talk the bill was referred to Burton, Swindells and Horwell, who will investigate.

The reports of city officers showed that Commissioner Welsh had been cutting ice in gutters, the mayor had collected $60.90, the water works had a balance of $4,477.82, and the city treasury was in this condition:

General.....	$ 3,185.95
Street and sanitary.....	1,248.91
Wharf.....	308.09
Fire.....	1,753.10
Police.....	2,751.69

Swindells recalled that the board of health should make a written report at the first meeting in March, and Clerk Hanley replied that he had learned this was now being prepared. The grading of Indiana avenue was referred to Williams, Owen and Marshall, and a resolution to improve Minerva street from Walnut to Chester avenue, was passed after the rules had been suspended. Another resolution dealing with the grading of Indiana avenue, a portion of the expense to be charged to the city, was passed in the same manner, and Clark brought up the business of the new electric light company. He recalled that council had made an error in passing the ordinance at the last meeting. He had written to P. M. Smith, and had received word from that gentleman stating that he would throw no obstruction in the path of the new company. He would waive all right to demand an election, and they could go ahead without apprehension from him. The solicitor filed his opinion attached to the letter, and suggested that the ordinance be published, but as the company has not been incorporated this was postponed. At the suggestion of the president, Chief Gill was given leave of absence until April 13 without pay, and the president called attention to the fact that the jury list at city hall was exhausted. Each member of council will hand in 15 names, and care will be taken that all are correctly spelled.

The matter of auditing the books of city officials was introduced by the president and Owen, Kent and Marshall were ordered to look after those of the water works trustees. Swindells, Burton and Horwell will look after the accounts of the treasurer, and Kent, Williams and Burton will look after the doings of the street commissioner.

Owen remembered that there was a dangerous hole in Lisbon road and there should be an electric light at that place, and he believed it should be attended to. Williams recalled the fact that this question was raised two years ago, but had always been left over because of lack of funds. The light was ordered, and Horwell wanted to know if this meant the eight lights ordered some time ago. He didn't believe the city got half the lights it paid for at best. Swindells got a shot at the company by saying that if the company were notified to put in the light they would find an excuse in the weather. Owen believed it would be best to set a time for placing the light in position, and if it was not done the city could sue for breach of contract.

Nothing was done with the suggestion and a communication from the Specialty Glass company was taken up. The company, in order to save money for the city, offered to construct a stone culvert over the run and build a good road of cinders covering the ground from the gravel bluff to their property line. The communication was received. The company also offered to relinquish its rights to right of way under the Cleveland and Pittsburg tracks. Peach Tree alley, with its disease-producing filth and combination of smells, was brought to the attention of council by Williams. He said that the place had been condemned by the board of health last summer, and the smells along its length already gave notice of increased activity when the weather got warm. The president said he had been there, and Swindells remarked that if there was an ordinance to sewer it should be enforced. To this Engineer George said there were various reasons why the place was not sewered, and that seemed to settle it.

At this point Swindells happened to remember that there had been no bill for light since January. Then the bill was returned for correction and claims committee has not seen it since. The police had kept an accurate list of the lights that failed at night, and he could not understand why the company did not do something. Berg believed the cause might lie in the fact that there were more than had been lit, and in that case there could be no bill. The remark caused a smile, but the subject was passed.

Burton brought the street railway into council by remarking that a wagon had been mashed at the power house, and the ties in the track near that point needed repairs. This brought out a lecture on monopolies from the president, who said council could do nothing with the company. Al Johnson once remarked, he said, that the city fathers reminded him of a town in Iowa—Council Bluffs, and the legislators smiled. Defective pavements appeared before the meeting was over, Commissioner Welch reporting one in bad condition at the Sebring pottery. It was ordered repaired, as was a defective board walk on Chestnut street, West End. Williams said that this walk was very bad, and a lady had fallen off the thing the other day, and had been

SENT TO THEIR HOME

Poor Authorities Dispose of a Family.

KEEP THEM IN THIS PLACE

Or Let Grafton, W. Va., Look After Their Wants—The Trustees Decided to Have Them Remain, but the Commissioners Wanted Them Sent Over the River.

The township trustees have a case which caused them to search diligently through the law for guidance and precedent.

Mrs. Grafton, a native of West Virginia, who with her husband and family, has been living in the city asked the trustees to send them all to Grafton. They own some household goods, and these were being shipped with them. It cost $15 for the freight, and the applicant asked that this amount be paid by the trustees. As there were four members in the family and the distance to Grafton is more than a step it was decided to investigate before granting the request. They could not send the family all there, neither could the goods be shipped, and tears came rushing to the poor woman's eyes when she learned their decision. Her husband, she said, was sick, and neither of them had been working for some time. The children could not support themselves, and the township had been helping them along. Trustee Lloyd acknowledged that he was touched by the woman's tears, but he believed the duty of the trustees was to the taxpayers as well as the poor. After deciding not to send the family away, the trustees telephoned to Lisbon, and got an opinion from the commissioners, who gave permission to send the family away. If they remained here, the authorities would have to keep them, and it was, perhaps, best to let them depart. This will settle the matter, if Grafton does not object.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Bad Board Walk in the West End the Cause.

Miss Brooks, a daughter of John Brooks, West End, had a narrow escape from death or serious injury yesterday.

She was walking along the miserable board walk which borders Chestnut street when one of the treacherous planks lurched toward the edge. In a moment she was thrown down, and her ankle was sprained and her body bruised. Had she fallen over the cliff which curves that part of the street serious injury, perhaps death, would have been the result. This is another argument for better walks.

PAID THEIR DEBTS.

The School Board Met to Consider Business.

All the members of the board of education were at the meeting last night. Bills to the amount of $200 were ordered paid, and samples of hat racks and locks for the new building were shown by hardware dealers. The board decided on copper bronze with antique finish. Not a word was said about the clock, but it is generally understood that the board favor the idea, and at the proper time we will get the time piece.

A Respected Resident Gone.

Died, at his home on Ninth street, Wellsville, March 11, Haggarty Harsha, aged 35 years. Deceased leaves a wife and three children and an aged mother, the last of the family. He suffered with consumption for four months and his patience was characteristic of his Christian spirit. As a citizen, a member of the Disciple church and a member of the American Mechanics, Mr. Harsha was respected by all, and it is seldom that a death reveals more genuine grief throughout any community than his demise has shown in the sister city. The funeral will take place from the family residence at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon with interment in Spring Hill cemetery, the Mechanics being in charge.

Among the Masses.

Colonel Baine, the gifted orator who lectured at the Grand last night, spoke on what he had learned from life "Among the Masses." The change in subject was because of the many who heard him at Akron last year. He spoke pleasantly and eloquently scattering truths clothed in beautiful language on every hand. The lecture was universally acknowledged to be the most entertaining number of the course.

For Field Practice.

The active Turners held a meeting last night, and decided to organize an athletic club for the continuance of their training in out door sport. A spirited contest is expected between the first and second classes, each class deciding that it can play prison bar and base ball much better than its opponent. At the earliest opportunity the games will be played, and then a third game will take place the winners to banquet at the expense of the unfortunate ones.

Enjoyed the Evening.

Mrs. H. R. Hill will delight a party of friends at dinner tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Charles Berg pleasantly entertained 50 of her friends at Turner hall last evening.

A large party of friends spent a pleasant evening at the home of Fred Turnbull, in Gardendale, last night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gass entertained the Utopia club last night. The evening was a delightful one for all who were present.

Mr. and Mrs. John D'Edds entertained a large party of friends at their home, College street, Monday evening. Mr. D'Edds has been employed at the power house for three years, but will leave soon to take up a position in Cleveland.

Some of the Sick.

Miss Della Corcoran, who has been ill, has so far recovered as to be able to return to work.

Daniel Isett, the watchman at Laughlin's, is confined to his home in East End by an illness.

Sylvester Kinsey is recovering from an attack of grip.

Miss Stella McNutt is confined to her home with an attack of sore throat.

Andrew Kerr is so ill that he cannot work.

Mrs. Lyons, an aged lady residing in Chester, is very ill.

Robert Allison, a Chester resident who is well known in this city, is seriously ill.

The Horses Scared.

A farmer whose name was not learned was driving a team of ponies up the Calcutta road about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon when a youngster threw a stone and it struck both horses. The animals ran away and dragged the farmer almost a mile in the mud but when last seen the horses were rounding the bend on the hill and the man still had a grasp on the reins and managing to keep his head off the ground.

Fired the Chimney.

An alarm from the patrol station hurried the department to Fourth and Market streets this morning, where smoke was pouring from the Hamilton building. No water was used, but a ladder was quickly raised to the top and the fire extinguished. The smoke was dense, and the crowd imagined there would be a big fire.

Safe in Pittsburg.

The disabled towboat Pacific has been hauled to Pittsburg, where it will be repaired, and put on the river again as soon as possible.

The Rescue towed to Pittsburg today the steam shovel that has been at work at Walkers. Almost all the coal sunk by the Onward was saved.

Is It Right to Kill Dogs?

At a late hour this afternoon it was learned that an attempt may be made to settle the vexed dog question by the owner of one of the animals killed by Officer Supplee yesterday fling suit for the value of his dog. While the amount involved is small, the decision will be interesting.

Coming and Going.

Samuel Mack, who has been a resident of the city for a short time, moved his household goods to Yorkville yesterday.

Jesse Hunter, of Rochester, has rented the property of J. C. Wallace, Third street, and will move next week to this city.

Judge Billingsley Coming Home.

Special to the News Review.

Lisbon, March 12.—Judge Billingsley has sent word to friends here that he will be home tomorrow. He will open court next Monday, but will not be able to do much work. The Liverpool assignment has been laid over for the week beginning March 25.

Broke the Wagon.

A wagon belonging to George Thompson, of East End, was broken at the power house yesterday by running into some damaged ties. Several mishaps of this kind have occurred there lately, and the interested parties are wanting repairs made.

Scraped His Hand.

Ed Dickey had his hand caught in a shaper at the Union planning mill yesterday and narrowly escaped serious injury. He jerked his hand away but not in time to avoid several cuts which will annoy him for awhile.

MRS. ELIZA SMITH DEAD

The Only Fatality From Falling on Icy Walks.

MONEY FOUND IN THE HOUSE

When Relatives Searched the Place They Found That the Old Lady Had Long Ago Secreted Silver Dollars About the House.

The only fatality of the winter, resulting from a fall on the city pavements, occurred on Monday night.

Some time ago Mrs. Eliza Smith, a resident of Church alley, ventured out when the streets were slippery and dangerous. She got along very well until the corner of Fifth and Market streets was reached, when she slipped and fell. Her thigh was broken, but it was thought that she could recover. Eventually the weight of her years began to tell, and she died on Monday night. Mrs. Smith was 75 years of age, and a devout member of the First Methodist Episcopal church. Milton Ralston, of Ralston's crossing, is a cousin, and a sister of the deceased lives in Gallia county. The remains were taken to Calcutta this morning for interment.

The relatives of Mrs. Smith, imagined the lady was penniless until they discovered some $56.00 hidden away this morning. Of this $40 was in an old bag and the balance in two pocketbooks in bureau drawers. The money was all in silver dollars, except the odd cents, and had evidently been hidden for years, as it was badly corroded.

Mrs. James McKenzie, residing on Fourth street died last night after a long illness at the advanced age of 84 years. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. A. D. Mackintosh, of this city, and a son, John McKenzie, of Montana. Deceased has long been a member of the First United Presbyterian church, and Reverend Taggart will conduct the funeral services on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains will be interred in Riverview.

Purchasing a Present.

A delegation of scholars from the Montgomery school, across the river, was in town today purchasing a handsome ring, which will be given their retiring teacher, Miss Emma Thornburg, tomorrow.

Council Will Think Over His Little Bill.

It Goes to the Committee Who Signed the Contract—A Street Sweeper Advocated by President Berg, and a Committee Will See One Work in Pittsburg on Thursday—No Bill From the Light Company.

After the long drawn out special sessions of council there was relief in the business like manner in which the affairs of the city were discussed last night.

It was almost 8:30 o'clock when President Berg looked down from his seat, and found that Kent and Marshall were the only absentees, but this did not deter him from opening the session by ordering the minutes of three sessions. The resolution accepting the plat of Thompson heirs in which 10 feet is given on Ravine street was placed on third reading, but before the vote was taken Burton called attention to the vast amount of grading necessary.

The president said that the committee were favorable, and Swindells remarked that the dirt could be moved without cost to the city, and the motion carried. The ordinance to appropriate property for the extension of Third street brought an objection from Williams, who moved to amend in such a way that half the cost would fall upon the property-owners and the other half on the city, and in this way the ordinance passed. The Arter bill, brought over from claims committee, called forth an objection from Swindells, who thought these old bills should be investigated. The solicitor was so delighted at this that he promised to help Clerk Hanley look into the matter, for he has been greatly annoyed.

Then came that much-talked-of bill of John Sant, asking $14.80 for his part in the Dow tax refunding matter, and it was clearly evident that it would not be paid just then. Horwell wanted it held over until there was a full meeting of council, and Owen said that if in the opinion of those who had made the contract the claimant had earned his money the bill should be paid. The president said he had made no investigation, and as one of the committee he was not ready to report. Solicitor Clark thought that Mr. Sant, who was in the lobby, might explain, but Swindells wanted it sent back to finance committee. At this point Mr. Sant arose and said "Mr.
President, I don't know," but he was cut short by the remark of the president that he could not talk, and his bill went to the finance committee.

Solicitor Clark wanted to know about his bill in the mandamus proceedings, expressing the belief that there was no personal feeling in the matter, but he raised the question whether council was going to pay.
If they decided in the negative, he would begin another mandamus, although he wanted council to understand that this was no threat. He cautioned council to obey the law; that the board was an independent body, and his bill had been certified by that body, and council must obey their mandates and the mandates of the law. He would find no fault if council refused to pay. He simply wanted to know what they were going to do about it. Berg believed they should move slowly in the matter, and the solicitor manifested a disposition not to push his claim. Swindells wanted it referred to a committee and Clark firmly stated his idea was to settle what was unsettled, but in the end the bill must be paid. If it came to court the litigation would not cost the city a cent, he said, and he would ask the judge to give an alternative writ.
After some more talk the bill was referred to Burton, Swindells and Horwell, who will investigate.

The reports of city officers showed that Commissioner Welsh had been cutting ice in gutters, the mayor had collected $60.90, the water works had a balance of $4,477.82, and the city treasury was in this condition:

Swindells recalled that the board of health should make a written report at the first meeting in March, and Clerk Hanley replied that he had learned this was now being prepared.
The grading of Indiana avenue was referred to Williams, Owen and Marshall, and a resolution to improve Minerva street from Walnut to Chester avenue, was passed after the rules had been suspended. Another resolution dealing with the grading of Indiana avenue, a portion of the expense to be charged to the city, was passed in the same manner, and Clark brought up the business of the new electric light company. He recalled that council had made an error in passing the ordinance at the last meeting. He had written to P. M. Smith, and had received word from that gentleman stating that he would throw no obstruction in the path of the new company. He would waive all right to demand an election, and they could go ahead without apprehension from him. The solicitor filed his opinion attached to the letter, and suggested that the ordinance be published, but as the company has not been incorporated this was postponed. At the suggestion of the president, Chief Gill was given leave of absence until April 12 without pay, and the president called attention to the fact that the jury list at city hall was exhausted. Each member of council will hand in 15 names, and care will be taken that all are correctly spelled.

The matter of auditing the books of city officials was introduced by the president and Owen, Kent and Marshall were ordered to look after those of the water works trustees.
Swindells, Burton and Horwell will look after the accounts of the treasurer, and Kent, Williams and Burton will look after the doings of the street commissioner.

Owen remembered that there was a dangerous hole in Lisbon road and there should be an electric light at that place, and he believed it should be attended to. Williams recalled the fact that this question was raised two years ago, but had always been left over because of lack of funds.

The light was ordered, and Horwell wanted to know if this meant the eight lights ordered some time ago.
He didn't believe the city got half the lights it paid for at best.
Swindells got a shot at the company by saying that if the company were notified to put in the light they would find an excuse in the weather. Owen believed it would be best to set a time for placing the light in position, and if it was not done the city could sue for breach of contract.

Nothing was done with the suggestion and a communication from the Specialty Glass company was taken up.
The company, in order to save money for the city, offered to construct a stone culvert over the run and build a good road of cinders covering the ground from the gravel bluff to their property line.
The communication was received.
The company also offered to relinquish its rights to right of way under the Cleveland and Pittsburg tracks.
Peach Tree alley, with its disease-producing filth and combination of smells, was brought to the attention of council by Williams.
He said that the place had been condemned by the board of health last summer, and the smells along its length already gave notice of increased activity when the weather got warm.
The president said he had been there, and Swindells remarked that if there was an ordinance to sewer it should be enforced. To this Engineer George said there were various reasons why the place was not sewered, and that seemed to settle it.

At this point Swindells happened to remember that there had been no bill for light since January. Then the bill was returned for correction and claims committee has not seen it since. The police had kept an accurate list of the lights that failed at night, and he could not understand why the company did not do something. Berg believed the cause might lie in the fact that there were more out than had been lit, and in that case there could be no bill. The remark caused a smile, but the subject was passed.

Burton brought the street railway into council by remarking that a wagon had been mashed at the power house, and the ties in the track near that point needed repairs. This brought out a lecture on monopolies from the president, who said council could do nothing with the company.
Al Johnson once remarked, he said, that the city fathers reminded him of a town in Iowa—Council Bluffs, and the legislators smiled.

Defective pavements appeared before the meeting was over, Commissioner Welch reporting one in bad condition at the Sebring pottery. It was ordered repaired, as was a defective board walk on Chester street, West End. Williams said that this walk was very bad, and a lady had fallen off the thing the other day, and had been diligently through the law for guidance and precedent.

Mrs. Grafton, a native of West Virginia, who with her husband and family, has been living in the city asked the trustees to send them all to Grafton. They own some household goods, and these were being shipped with them. It cost $15 for the freight, and the applicant asked that this amount be paid by the trustees. As there were four members in the family and the distance to Grafton is more than a step it was decided to investigate before granting the request.
They could not send the family all there, neither could the goods be shipped, and tears came rushing to the poor woman's eyes when she learned their decision. Her husband, she said, was sick, and neither of them had been working for some time. The children could not support themselves, and the township had been helping them along. Trustee Lloyd acknowledged that he was touched by the woman's tears, but he believed the duty of the trustees was to the taxpayers as well as the poor. After deciding not to send the family away, the trustees telephoned to Lisbon, and got an opinion from the commissioners, who gave permission to send the family away. If they remained here, the authorities would have to keep them, and it was, perhaps, best to let them depart. This will settle the matter, if Grafton does not object.

Bad Board Walk in the West End the Cause.

Miss Brooks, a daughter of John Brooks, West End, had a narrow escape from death or serious injury yesterday.

She was walking along the miserable board walk which borders Chester street when one of the treacherous planks lurched toward the edge.
In a moment she was thrown down, and her ankle was sprained and her body bruised. Had she fallen over the cliff which curses that part of the street serious injury, perhaps death, would have been the result. This is another argument for better walks.

PAID THEIR DEBTS.

The School Board Met to Consider Business.

All the members of the board of education were at the meeting last night. Bills to the amount of $200 were ordered paid, and samples of hat racks and locks for the new building were shown by hardware dealers. The board decided on copper bronze with antique finish. Not a word was said about the clock, but it is generally understood that the board favor the idea, and at the proper time we will get the time piece.

A Respected Resident Gone.

Died, at his home on Ninth street, Wellsville, March 11, Haggarty Harsha, aged 35 years. Deceased leaves a wife and three children and an aged mother, the last of the family. He suffered with consumption for four months and his patience was characteristic of his Christian spirit. As a citizen, a member of the Disciple church and a member of the American Mechanics, Mr. Harsha was respected by all, and it is seldom that a death reveals more genuine grief throughout any community than his demise has shown in the sister city. The funeral will take place from the family residence at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon with interment in Spring Hill cemetery, the Mechanics being in charge.

Among the Masses.

Colonel Baine, the gifted orator who lectured at the Grand last night, spoke on what he had learned from life "Among the Masses." The change in heart was because of the many who heard him at Akron last year. He spoke pleasantly and eloquently scattering truths clothed in beautiful language on every hand. The lecture was universally acknowledged to be the most entertaining number of the course.

For Field Practice.

The active Turners held a meeting last night, and decided to organize an athletic club for the continuance of their training in out door sport. A spirited contest is expected between the first and second classes, each class deciding that it can play prison bar and base ball much better than its opponent. At the earliest opportunity the games will be played, and then a third game will take place the winners to banquet at the expense of the unfortunate ones.

Enjoyed the Evening.

Mrs. H. R. Hill will delight a party of friends at dinner tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Charles Berg pleasantly entertained 50 of her friends at Turner hall last evening.

A large party of friends spent a pleasant evening at the home of Fred Turnbull, in Gardendale, last night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gass entertained the Utopia club last night.
The evening was a delightful one for all who were present.

Mr. and Mrs. John D'Edds entertained a large party of friends at their home, College street, Monday evening.
Mr. D'Edds has been employed at the power house for three years, but will leave soon to take up a position in Cleveland.

Some of the Sick.

Miss Della Corcoran, who has been ill, has so far recovered as to be able to return to work.

Daniel Issett, the watchman at Laughlin's, is confined to his home in East End by an illness.

Sylvester Kinsey is recovering from an attack of grip.

Miss Stella McNutt is confined to her home with an attack of sore throat.

Andrew Kerr is so ill that he cannot work.

Mrs. Lyons, an aged lady residing in Chester, is very ill.

Robert Allison, a Chester resident who is well known in this city, is seriously ill.

A farmer whose name was not learned was driving a team of ponies up the Calcutta road about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon when a youngster threw a stone and it struck both horses. The animals ran away and dragged the farmer almost a mile in the mud but when last seen the horses were rounding the bend on the hill and the man still had a grasp on the reins and managing to keep his head off the ground.

An alarm from the patrol station hurried the department to Fourth and Market streets this morning, where smoke was pouring from the Hamilton building. No water was used, but a ladder was quickly raised to the top and the fire extinguished. The smoke was dense, and the crowd imagined there would be a big fire.

Safe in Pittsburg.

The disabled tugboat Pacific has been hauled to Pittsburg, where it will be repaired, and put on the river again as soon as possible.

The Rescue towed to Pittsburg today the steam shovel that has been at work at Walkers. Almost all the coal sunk by the Onward was saved.

At a late hour this afternoon it was learned that an attempt may be made to settle the vexed dog question by the owner of one of the animals killed by Officer Supplee yesterday filing suit for the value of his dog. While the amount involved is small, the decision will be interesting.

Coming and Going.

Samuel Mack, who has been a resident of the city for a short time, moved his household goods to Yorkville yesterday.

Jesse Hunter, of Rochester, has rented the property of J. C. Wallace, Third street, and will move next week to this city.

Lisbon, March 12.—Judge Billingsley has sent word to friends here that he will be home tomorrow. He will open court next Monday, but will not be able to do much work. The Liverpool assignment has been laid over for the week beginning March 25.

Broke the Wagon.

A wagon belonging to George Thompson, of East End, was broken at the power house yesterday by running into some damaged ties. Several misshaps of this kind have occurred there lately, and the interested parties are wanting repairs made.

Scraped His Hand.

Ed Dickey had his hand caught in a shaper at the Union planning mill yesterday and narrowly escaped serious injury. He jerked his hand away but not in time to avoid several cuts which will annoy him for awhile.

The Only Fatality From Falling on Icy Walks.

When Relatives Searched the Place They Found That the Old Lady Had Long Ago Secreted Silver Dollars About the House.

The only fatality of the winter, resulting from a fall on the city pavements, occurred on Monday night.

Some time ago Mrs. Eliza Smith, a resident of Church alley, ventured out when the streets were slippery and dangerous. She got along very well until the corner of Fifth and Market streets was reached, when she slipped and fell. Her thigh was broken, but it was thought that she could recover. Eventually the weight of her years began to tell, and she died on Monday night. Mrs. Smith was 75 years of age, and a devout member of the First Methodist Episcopal church. Milton Ralston, of Ralston's crossing, is a cousin, and a sister of the deceased lives in Gallia county. The remains were taken to Calcutta this morning for interment.

The relatives of Mrs. Smith, imagined the lady was penniless until they discovered some $56.00 hidden away this morning. Of this $40 was in an old bag and the balance in two pocketbooks in bureau drawers. The money was all in silver dollars, except the odd cents, and had evidently been hidden for years, as it was badly corroded.

Mrs. James McKenzie, residing on Fourth street, died last night after a long illness at the advanced age of 84 years. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. A.
D. Mackintosh, of this city, and a son, John McKenzie, of Montana. Deceased has long been a member of the First United Presbyterian church, and Reverend Taggart will conduct the funeral services on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains will be interred in Riverview.

Purchasing a Present.

A delegation of scholars from the Montgomery school, across the river, was in town today purchasing a handsome ring, which will be given their retiring teacher, Miss Emma Thornburg, tomorrow.

For President,

WHEN you hear a free silver advo-you know that he is not well informed in his own financial creed.

If the man with a fashionable wife chanced to be asked an opinion he would probably say there is no truth in the statement that Worth, the great milliner, is now modeling robes for the angels.

DON'T BE IMPATIENT.

The long promised revival of business seems to be waiting until the sun shines and the flowers bloom in spring. Dunn's smart young men, and the brilliant prophet of the New York Financial Chronicle have been telling us for several months that there was a better feeling, and increased activity would mark the coming weeks. While this has been true as regards the iron and a few other of the more important industries, it certainly can not be said that the blight of Democracy has been lifted from the notion. The trail of the serpent still covers the land and thousands of men are daily seeking employment.

The reports say that railway revenues show signs of improvement, but they fail to explain that there is so much room for increase in this one particular that the good record has not yet affected, to any great extent, the thousands of men in that one branch.

with the others, but it recovered a little, and there are reasons for hope

SEVEN OTHERS WERE WOUNDED.

Two Negroes, Who Jumped Into the White Strikers Fired on the Negroes

While They Were at Work.

NEW ORLEANS, March 13.—The thick fog in the early morning was the veil behind which desperate white levee laborers gathered and which they penetrated with Winchester rifle balls aimed at the colored non-union men at work at the ships.

The attack was made at points several miles apart, just before the arrival of the police, and as a result there are half a dozen corpses and a dozen or so wounded men. The police saw the attack, but no arrests followed, they claiming they were too few to cope with the unexpected outbreak. The day before the governor saw no grounds for interference, but now the business men are denouncing both. The militia is in readiness to move. An appeal to the federal government has virtually been made and even the foreign consuls have decided to join in the move for peace at any price.

The cause which led to the troubles have been of long standing, and grew out of the attempt of ship agents and others interested to reduce rates. The white screwmen claim that the colored men who were given a share of the work under an agreement, made secret costs and violated the agreement in order to obtain more work, and gradually crowd the white men out. The white associations then severed all ties with the blacks and refused to work with them, or for the men who employed them.

The white longshoremen joined the screwmen in this.

Since then, the steamship lines have been gradually going over to the negroes. Lately the white screwmen quit work on the lines still loyal to them, saying that they would not work until the whole affair was straightened out.

Several more lines then took on negro labor, from necessity. The whites finally determined to retaliate on the stevedores by offering to reduce rates and deal with the ships direct. Ships in haste accepted the offer, but the agents stood by the stevedores. The latter offered to pay more than the screwmen asked, but the screwmen refused to deal with them. The agents offered to pay the screwmen their wages and place the stevedores over them as superintendents, but the screwmen again declined.

Then the stevedores began importing colored screwmen from Galveston, and the whites, growing desperate, broke loose in riots.

The dead are: William Campbell, colored screwman, shot on Philip street; Jules Calice Carrahe, shoemaker, shot in front of Lyon's clothing store; unknown, shot in vicinity of Cromwell line; unknown negro, in same vicinity, not yet identified; Leonard Mallard, colored, scullerman, shot over the right eye.

The injured are: James A. Bane, white, purser, steamship engineer, shot in the head twice, arm once, dangerous;

Henry Brown, colored, screwman, shot five times, both arms and both legs, will recover; Tim Perston, colored coal wheeler, shot seven times, both legs and thigh and arm recovered; Louis Cast, colored, employer sugar refinery, shot in hip, will recover; Billy Williams, colored, screwman, shot in leg, will re-

for cement firm, shot in leg, dangerous;

Robert Brooks, white longshoreman, shot with Winchester in right leg below the knee.

Two negroes, names unknown, jumped into the river and it is believed were drowned.

U. S. TROOPS REFUSED.

New Orleans Authorities Must First Act.

International Complications.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The intimation that troops were needed at New Orleans came from the United States district attorney there, and Attorney

General Olney has replied that the state must first exhaust its resources or deny protection before troops can be used.

present trouble as part of the racial agitation which has been going on for some time and which first broke out in con-

labor of that section object to the employment of negro labor on the ships,

The progress of the trouble is being closely observed by the British officials, although they feel confident that the

everything possible to suppress the disorder, and if the trouble passes beyond

take such steps as are necessary to protect foreigners and Americans alike.

It is said that the complaint of the

riot, would first be submitted to the British consul at New Orleans, who would communicate with the foreign office at London or direct to the embassy here, according to the emergency. If the offense was shown to be against Bain because he was an Englishman, it is said Sir Julian

Panncote would demand an explanation. If, however, Bain's nationality had no part in the affray and he was hit because he was in the mob, then no attention would be given to the incident.

The action of the Italian government

at the time of the New Orleans lynching is cited as showing the diplomatic aspect of the trouble. The lynchings were against Italians, as such, and not

Italians. For that reason Italy protested and then summarily broke off diplomatic relations with the United States by having Baron Fava demand his passports. The United States ultimately paid an indemnity to the families of those lynched. It is said the

against Englishmen, as such, but not to

Englishmen.

It does no more than urge the people of East Liverpool to look upon the bright side, and keep in mind the indubitable will of American spirit.
There is no Democratic congress to impede progress, and nothing more dangerous in sight than the weight of imported articles upon the stooping shoulders of Uncle Sam. Democracy has worked all the harm it can do for the present, and advancement in the future can be expected. The good time can not be brought in a day, the nation can not recover from the blow in an instant. It will take time, and only the people can bring it about.

Have faith in the future. Put your shoulder to the wheel. Do not be impatient. Democracy betrayed a sacred trust, congress gave the Republic into the hands of the enemy, but that great ruler, the American people, will retrieve their losses, build up the business of the land, and with the aid of Republican principle will bring forth a flower whose lustre will outshine anything of the past. Don't be impatient, it is coming.

drowned.

U. S. TROOPS REFUSED.

International Complications.

tion that troops were needed at New Orleans came from the United States
district attorney there, and Attorney
protection before troops can be used.

tation which has been going on for some
labor of that section object to the employment of negro labor on the ships,

closely observed by the British officials,
tect foreigners and Americans alike.

riot, would first be submitted to the British consul at New Orleans, who would communicate with the foreign office at London or direct to the embassy here, according to the emergency. If the offense was shown to be against Bain because he
Pauncefote would demand an explanation. If, however, Bain's nationality had no part in the affray and he was hit because he was in the mob, then no
cident.

his passports. The United States ultimately paid an indemnity to the fam-
Englishmen.

THE B. & O. S. W.'S KICK.

Four Passenger Meetings Held in Cincinnati—After the Ratecutters.

CINCINNATI, March 13.—There have been four meetings of passenger associations here. While the meetings did nothing except routine business, yet the occasion caused the presence of officials from Pittsburg, St. Louis and other points, who were exercised over the announcement of the withdrawal of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern from the agreement entered into last January by the presidents' association for the maintenance of certain rates.

Vice President and General Manager W. W. Peabody said the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern would show sufficient reasons for their action, but that the case was not yet in such shape as to enable him to give those reasons. They knew the cause for this action and were on the trail of offenders. Second Vice President and Traffic Manager Duncan will return to St. Louis today and is pleased with the notice sent to Commissioner Blanchard and others. He said the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern was standing strictly by the agreement in good faith and others were not doing so.

A Deputy Postmaster In Trouble.

TOLEDO, March 13.—Jason B. Elliott, deputy postmaster at Monticello, O., has been bound over to await the action of the United States federal grand jury, charged with violating the postal laws relative to mailing improper pictures, and literature. He is accused of being in partnership with Oscar Seismann of Osceola, Ia., who was fined $5,000 and sentenced to eight years imprisonment last December. The violation of the law was traced by an agent of the National Humane society.

pany, Mansfield, capital stock $10,000;

Squire Called on to Resign.

TOLEDO, March 13.—Mayor Major treated the politicians to a big surprise when he called upon W. I. Squire for his resignation as trustee of the Soldiers' Memorial building, to which he was appointed by Mayor two years ago. This is said to be the result of the alleged Cincinnati disclosures relative to Squire.
Squire is widely known, having been president of the Ohio Republican league, and, in 1893, a candidate for the presidency of the National League of Republic Clubs. It is intimated that he will resign without protest.

A Decision May Be Needed.

COLUMBUS, March 13.—The supreme court may have a case of the citizenship of women to decide in view of the law permitting them to vote on certain questions. Attorney General Lawrence decided under the state law that a foreign-born woman whose husband was a citizen could not vote unless she had taken out naturalization papers. The United States law holds that when a foreign-born woman marries a citizen she becomes a citizen without the need of naturalization.

An Infirmary Inmate Suicides.

EATON, O., March 13.—David Mon-fort, an old inmate at the county infirmary, died from taking paris green.
He left the infirmary and went to the cemetery, where he took the poison.
He was found a few hours afterward and taken to the home of his sister, where he died. On his person was found a letter addressed to J. R.
Stephen of Eaton, in which he stated the cause was bad treatment by one of the inmates of the infirmary.

An Old War Veteran Dead.

GALLIPOLIS, O., March 13.—Joseph Pierre Drouillard, a veteran of the war of 1812, died at his home here, his demise leaving but four surviving veterans of that war. Mr. Drouillard fought in 18 pitched battles in the war of 1812 and had lived until next September would have been 99 years old. He was a descendant of Napoleon I and had held numerous government positions, having been postmaster at Gallipolis for many years.

Bronson Must Serve His Term.

TOLEDO, March 13.—The supreme court has affirmed the verdict of guilty and sentence of four years in the case of the state of Ohio vs. Charles E. Bronson of Defiance, for embezzlement.
Bronson was connected with the defunct Defiance Savings bank. When the sheriff went to arrest Bronson, the latter could not be found, and it was stated that he had left for the east on a Baltimore and Ohio train.

Ohio People Are Heirs.

NEW YORK, March 13.—A telegram received from Springfield, O., says that a letter has just come from the lawyer sent to Brazil by the Buffenbarger heirs of Springfield, O., in which he estimates that estate at $16,000,000, and says that the heirs will get their money in a few months if nothing unforeseen occurs.
The share of Mrs. John Crawford of this city it put at $1,000,000.

Prominent Toledo Citizens Dead.

TOLEDO, March 13.—The city has lost two of its foremost citizens by death in the person of H. W. Bigelow, of the firm of Worth, Kirk & Bigelow, and James H. Ritch, agent for the Lackawanna lines. Mr. Bigelow was born in Colchester, Conn., 37 years ago. Mr.
Ritch was a native of the city.

Annexation at Cincinnati Valid.

CINCINNATI, March 13.—The supreme court of Ohio has announced an opinion finding the recent annexation of suburban towns to Cincinnati, to be valid.
This decision is to materially increase the population of the city.

Bohl's Formal Resignation.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Henry Bohl, United States marshal for the Southern district of Ohio, has resigned.

A Big Building Burned.

BROOKLYN, March 13.—The 4-story brick building occupying a space of 100 feet square on the northwest corner of Fifth avenue and Second street, owned and occupied by Charles Feltman and known as Tivoli hall, has been totally destroyed by fire. Loss, $20,000.

RIDDLED WITH LEAD.

A Colorado Mob Attacks Nine Italian Murderers.

FOUR OF THEM ARE KILLED.

The Driver of the Wagon on Which They Were Being Taken to Jail Also Killed.
Race War on Between Italians and Americans.

WATSONBURG, Colo., March 13.—Two or three days ago Deputy Sheriff Hixon was brutally murdered at this place by several Italian coal miners. After pounding the deputy's head into a pulp, the body was hidden and was not found until Monday morning. A general alarm was given and bloodhounds put upon the murderers' trail. In a short time the well-trained dogs succeeded in running down nine men, who acknowledged having committed the crime, and each endeavored to lay it on the other.

An inquest was held, at which the guilt of the nine Italians was plainly proven. Hixon being a very popular man, the feeling among other miners and citizens in general grew to fever heat, and at the close of the coroner's inquest, as the prisoners were being taken to jail in a wagon, a mob made a rush for them, and before the sheriff and his deputies could raise a hand to protect them, the bodies of four of the Italians and the American driver were riddled with bullets.

At this juncture a general riot started.
One hundred or more Italians, seeing their countrymen lying around dead, became frenzied, and are swearing they will have vengeance. Both factions began arming themselves and at last accounts were expected to come together at any moment. The telegraph operator at Watsonburg has abandoned his post, leaving no way to secure further information except as it is brought into surrounding towns by people who are fleeing from the scene of trouble, or deputy sheriffs seeking assistance.

Excited Over Our Claims.

COLON, March 13.—The claims of the United States against this government for having stopped telegrams sent by that government to its representatives on the isthmus is creating the greatest excitement here. The Liberals say they will see that no property of foreigners is destroyed or touched by the soldiers and will defend the same if possible against deserters and refugees.

To Import American Negroes.

MASQUA, Nicaragua, March 13.—The government has arranged with an American syndicate for the introduction of 2,500 able-bodied negroes and their families from the United States to be employed, most of them, in agriculture in the coast country.

Governor McKinley In Atlanta.

ATLANTA, March 13.—Governor Mc-Kinley was delayed in Rome by a wreck on the East Tennessee road near that city. He was entertained by the Republicans of Rome and later came to this city.

SPANIARDS' BAD BREAK

Gresham Informed of the Firing on the Allianca.

CAPTAIN CROSSMAN'S LETTER.

The Spanish Gunboat Had No Right to Fire on the American Vessel, According to His Explanation—Such Action Justifiable Only During War.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—A report has reached the state department of the firing at the American ship Allianca, off the Cuban coast, by a Spanish war vessel. The officials positively decline to pass judgment in the matter. The questions involved are those touching the right of search of merchant vessels upon the high seas and on this subject there is and always has been a great difference of opinion and practice among nations.

In the first place, the right of search is a strictly belligerent right, which means that it cannot usually be used in times of peace. In the present case, there has been no declaration of war by Spain, no recognition of the belligerency of the insurgents and no notice to our government of the existence of a blockade of the Cuban ports by the Spanish naval vessels. Consequently our merchant ships are bound to assume that there is no state of war and that there are no belligerents.

The impression here is that the Spaniards had heard of the fitting out of filibustering expeditions in central America with arms supplied from the United States, and that in this case they had reason to suspect that the filibusters of supplies would be landed by the American steamship at some point on the Cuban coast. It is admitted here that the Spanish cruiser had the right to satisfy herself as to the nationality of the steamship, and according to the principles of international law, she might have signalled and even have safely gone so far as to have fired a shot across the bows of the steamship, but further than this, the cruiser, it is said, was not justified in doing.

Secretary Gresham has received the letter of Captain J. A. Crossman, captain of the Allianca, explaining the incident. The letter in substance says: "The American mailsteamer Allianca, under my command, while on her homeward-bound voyage from Colon, R. C., to New York, was on the morning of March 8, off the coast of Cuba. At 6:30 A. M. a barkentine rigged steamer was sighted under the name of the Allianca, but showing very conclusively that the Spaniards were firing at us. It being fully six miles off shore and on the high seas, paid no further attention to the Spaniards, but kept my course. The Spaniards kept up the chase, although gradually dropping astern, for fully 25 miles.

"But, about five minutes later the Spaniards fired a blank cartridge and a few minutes later another one, followed shortly after by three solid shots, all of which fell short of the Allianca, but showing very conclusively that the Spaniards were firing at us. It being fully six miles off shore and on the high seas, paid no further attention to the Spaniards, but kept my course. The Spaniards kept up the chase, although gradually dropping astern, for fully 25 miles.

A RIOT DURING MASS.

Polish Factions Fight in a Church at Omaha.

OMAHA, March 13.—During early morning mass at St. Paul's Roman Catholic church a party of Poles who were formerly members of the congregation, but who were ousted by Bishop Scannell, entered the church and attempted to take possession. Father Karminski, who was saying mass, resisted the attempt to capture the church and one of the invading party opened fire. Father Karminski at once drew a revolver and fired into the attacking party. After a long fusillade the invaders withdrew, leaving their wounded in the church.

Those wounded were: F. Dargazewski, shot through both legs; John Kozicki, shot through the knee; Joseph Jada, one of the priest's supporters, stabbed and beaten over the head. The police were at once summoned and after a hard fight they took possession of the church. Several people were arrested, among them Father Karminski, and they are now in jail.

The Situation in Cuba.

MADRID, March 13.—A dispatch from Cuba states that the five western provinces of the island are now tranquil. The dispatch adds that the rebel chief, Tanayo, and other insurgent leaders who are at Manzanillo confirms the statements that there are dissensions in the ranks of the rebels.

She Worked the Old Man.

A young woman, well acquainted with a butcher, walked into his place of business yesterday and borrowed a dollar, sat down and began telling the butcher how easily she had "worked" an old man for some money; but he was suspicious of her. At that moment the old man came in, having been following the girl, but she was not frightened. She simply gave a look that meant a great deal, and throwing the dollar to the butcher said: "Here is that dollar I borrowed from you the other day. I want you to understand that I am honest, and pay my debts;" but the old man looked dubious.

Looking For Her Boy.

Mrs. Margaret Magraw, an old lady residing near Jefferson street on Church alley, is looking for her adopted son, who disappeared last Friday. His name is Frank Darrah, 17 years old, and not large for his years. He came here with his foster mother two months ago, and has been employed in a pottery. The lady does not know what became of the boy, or what prompted him to leave, but she believes he has gone to Pittsburg or Cleveland. The lady will gladly receive all information any one may have, as she is anxious to know what has become of the boy.

Lost His Position.

Mathew McGraw, who will be remembered by the older residents of the city as living here a number of years ago, met with misfortune in Chicago last week. He went to that city soon after the fire, and was afterwards appointed to a position on the police force. From there he was raised to the rank of detective, and has for years been connected with that branch of the government. The other day, at the annual examination, he failed, but through an error in awarding the grades. It seems that the mistake will not be corrected.

Neglected His Wife.

The officers of the Humane society were informed today that a man employed by a local coal company had been neglecting his family, particularly his wife, who has been ill. The accused denied that the charge was true, stating that he gave the greater part of his earnings to his family. The society could do nothing with the complaint, as they could obtain no affidavits to support the charge. This is the one obstruction in the way of the society, persons constantly refusing to make complaints legal.

TRAMPED IN THE MUD.

How Two Liverpool Boys Paid a Visit to Beaver Falls.

A Beaver paper of yesterday contains the following: "About 9 o'clock last night Mrs. James Murray, of lower Seventh avenue, heard a sound at her door as if someone crying bitterly. Then there came a timid knock. She opened the door, and was surprised to see standing on the door step two of the most forlorn-looking specimens of boy she ever laid eyes on.

"The lads were covered with mud from head to feet, their faces were dirty, their eyes inflamed from crying and they could hardly drag one leg after the other. 'Don't you know me, aunt?' whimpered one of the lads, and then she discovered it was her little nephew, the seven-year-old son of Charles Hayden, formerly of Beaver Falls, but now a resident of East Liverpool, and the other was of about the same age and the son of Mr. Cartwright, of East Liverpool also, and who has an aunt residing in Beaver Falls. Mrs. Murray took the babies—for they are not much more—into the house, and soon learned their story.

"That afternoon they had taken a notion to visit their aunts in Beaver Falls, and started up the Cleveland and Pittsburg track on their long journey. After many hours of weary tramping they came to the Beaver station, and one of the boys remembered the long steps leading up the hillside to the town from the fact that when he and his mother were going to East Liverpool they had come down the steps and taken the train. They dragged themselves up the long flight and soon struck the street car track. It was then dark, but, nothing daunted, they started along the track for Beaver Falls, where they arrived about 9 o'clock, after being almost swamped in the mud between Bridge-water and New Brighton."

TWO OLD LADIES.

They Live Side by Side and Each is a Centenarian.

When Squire A. R. Gould was coming from Wellsview yesterday afternoon he saw David Byers, a friend of his youth, sitting in the car. When he had made himself known the two began to talk of their relatives, and it was brought out that the mother of the stranger lives on her farm near Deerfield, O., and has passed the age of 113 years. This brought out some recollections, and the squire reminded his friend that Mrs. Gould, his grandmother, lived on the adjoining farm enjoying very good health when her age of 103 years was considered. She was for some time a resident of East Liverpool when the country between Second street and the Horn switch was the finest oak forest along the Ohio river, and settlers were few and far between. She moved from her farm in Portage county since that time. The squire visited her several years ago, and found her spinning wool on one of the old fashioned wheels of her youthful days. There is probably no other square mile of territory in the country that can boast of two persons whose combined ages makes over 215 years. Both ladies are in good health, although Mrs. Byers looks as venerable as her years would imply.

Mr. Morley Is in the Race.

George Morley, one of the active candidates for justice of the peace, was made clear through yesterday afternoon when he learned that another candidate for the same office had been circulating the statement that Mr. Morley was not in the fight. Mr. Morley wants it understood that he will not have the office if it cannot be obtained without a liberal sprinkling of mud, but he is in the battle to win, and will stay until the last vote is counted on Saturday night.

Two Celebrations.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, formerly residents of this city, are celebrating their twelfth anniversary as man and wife at their residence opposite West End today. A number of Liverpool people are in attendance.

E. A. Stevenson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. Stevenson, and a number of other East End people are today attending the celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of Mrs. Stevenson near Calcutta. Thirty guests were in attendance.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There will be Lenten services in the Lutheran church this evening.

The Charity club of East End will give another entertainment on April 11: a popular drama will be presented.

The first fruits of the objection to dogs came yesterday when Officer Supplee sent three homeless wanderers to the last long home for canines.

Mayor Gilbert and Officer Supplee went to Lisbon this morning taking with them William Moriarity, who will spend a few months in the county jail.

Doc McFarland and Squire Rose were in West Virginia yesterday looking after their new farm. On the way home they attended a sale opposite Wellsview.

The authorities received notification this morning that Paddy Baker had broken out of the jail at Toronto, and was thought to have come this way. The reward for Paddy's arrest is $25.

The lumber for construction of Mechanic's hall in Chester was taken across the river yesterday. The building has advanced so far that the contractors believe it will be finished within 10 days.

The lady Rechabites were six years old as an organization last night, and celebrated the anniversary with all the pomp and ceremony of such occasions. One of the most delightful socials in the life of the organization marked the event.

Ex-Mayor Morley has been slowly collecting fines which were due him when he was the executive, and last night turned in $4 to the city. The determination to prosecute those who failed to pay their lawful debts to the city is having its effect.

When the new company take charge of the Wellsview light plant, extensive improvements, increasing the efficiency of the service, will be made. The impression prevails that Messrs Laughlin, Wells and Andrews have a good thing in their investment.

Henry Moutz, one of the men implicated in a row in the Midway Saturday night, went to city hall yesterday evening, and told Mayor Gilbert that he was guilty. His contribution to the city fund was $7.60, and he left his gold watch in lieu of the cash.

The Hudson came up last night, and left a lot of hoop poles at the wharf. The Bedford also arrived from lower ports, and added 30 casks of ware to the exceptionally large cargo on board. The Lizzie Ray passed down, taking on eight packages of ware at this point.

The school term of Grant district closes on Friday next, being the end of the six months studies, and the teacher, Miss Carrie Campbell, of this city, has arranged to give a grand entertainment to mark the last day. A number from this city will be present at the literary.

A small boy was thrown from a street car on Washington street late yesterday afternoon and had his face skinned. He had spent the greater part of the afternoon jumping cars as they passed. A motorman said he would soon stop the practice if he was empowered to make arrests.

W. O. Hersche, the man who wants to sell the city a sweeper, was talking with the trustees yesterday regarding the purchase of a stone crusher, and the piking of the roads in the township. The trustees would like to see the roads piked, but wonder where they will get the money to pay for the work.

Miss Edna Brindley, who resides with her sister in this city, and is employed at the American Stilt works, received a telegram yesterday conveying the sad news of her mother's death at her home in Wheeling. The lady's illness was very sudden, as her children here knew nothing of it until they learned of her demise.

The season for coon hunting has arrived, and hunters go from the city almost every night in search of the little animals. George Mountz and his son were in the Dry Run neighborhood last night and each was rewarded with a fine coon. The animals are in better condition than has been known in years, and give the hunters ample opportunity for all the sport they desire.

Reverend Clayton, one of the ministers connected with the Floating Bethel, is holding revival services at the Washington school house four miles from the river in West Virginia. He has succeeded in stirring up the whole country side for miles around, and the building is crowded every evening. The number of converts increases each evening, and he expects to get many more before the meeting close.

Although the foot ball season is far in the distance, and teams in all parts of the land are laid up for repairs, some local athletes are beginning to catch the fever. A movement has been started which may result in the formation of a club that will practice during the summer months, and be ready for the fray when autumn comes again. The young men who are fathering the scheme will select only the best athletes in town.

hurt. Williams was called to the chair, and the president took up another matter, a street sweeper. Mr. Hersche, representing the firm making the things, was present, and could explain his machine. He knew the people wanted a sweeper, and said he could bring to council a petition with 1,500 names urging that one be purchased. He moved that Hersche's sweeper be brought here and tried, but before a second could be secured, Horwell wanted to amend so that the matter would be placed in the hands of street committee. Owen didn't favor this plan. He would vote for the purchase of a sweeper, but did not want to bind himself to the purchase of any particular make. Swindells thought the street committee should have the matter in hand, and seconded Horwell's motion, but Owen was opposed, and wanted council to decide. Berg was of the same opinion, and Horwell explained that his motion was to investigate and not purchase. Hersche was asked to talk, and said he did not favor a contest, as he would then be compelled to charge more than the regular price for his machine. He would willingly pay the expenses of the committee to Pittsburg, where they could see the sweeper in operation. The offer was accepted, and after deciding to go on Thursday evening, council went home.

A NEW MANAGER.

The Light Company Adds a Member to the Force.

Mr. L. H. Bostwick, well known in our city as a popular representative of the General Electric company, has been employed by the Ceramic City Light company, as general manager of the East Liverpool plant and will take charge before April 1, and will locate here with his family at an early day. Mr. Bostwick knows how such a business should be operated, and the company spare no expense in getting the best employees they can secure. Mr. McKeon will still continue as superintendent and electrician, and marked improvement has already been noticed in the service since his return. Bostwick and McKeon will make a strong team, and with the largely increased facilities which are being furnished, our city will be second to none in the quality of light.

Go Hear Her.

Rev. Anna Shaw, of Washington, is one of the ablest speakers on the platform, either among men or women. She has a well trained mind, quenchless enthusiasm, and that rarest of all qualities—pluck. Her history proves all this. No woman could have wrenched education and success from more difficult conditions. America does not contain a more loyal and devoted adherent of woman's cause. A graduate of Boston university, in both medicine and theology, Doctor Shaw brings rare qualities to her platform work. Her lecture, entitled "The Fate of Republics," is one of the finest I have ever heard, both in matter and delivery. Audiences will be conciliated by her cultured manner, enlivened by her wit, and captured by her logic.

OLNEY BEFORE THE COURT.

He Argues In Behalf of the Income Tax.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Attorney General Olney, in his argument in support of the income tax before the supreme court, said that the constitutional contention of the plaintiffs simmers down to two points. One is that the income tax is a direct tax and must be imposed according to the rule of apportionment, and the other is based upon the alleged violation of the constitution with regard to uniformity.

He declared that whether an income tax is what the constitution describes as a "direct" tax is a question as completely concluded by repeated adjudications as any question can be. It is not a direct tax within the meaning of the constitution, unless five concurring judgments of this court have all been erroneous.

Mr. Olney devoted considerable time to the meaning of the word "uniform" as applied to the collection of impost, excises, etc., declaring that the word had a territorial application and no other. The power to tax, he said, is for practical use and is necessarily to be adapted to the practical conditions of human life. These are never the same for any two persons and as applied to any community, however small, are infinitely diversified. Nothing has been often declared by courts and jurists, than that absolute equality of taxation is impossible.

QUEEN LIL SENTENCED.

She May Leave the Country, Probably to Go to England.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 13.—Hawaiian advices received here state that the ex-queen has been sentenced to five years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $5,000. She is still confined in a room in the executive building, where she was placed on the day of her arrest, and is under military guard. Just what is to be done with Liliuokalani is a question which the government has not yet answered. Certain it is that she will not be kept in the executive building for five years or placed in the Oahu prison.

Undoubtedly before the end of the month some proposition will be received from the ex-queen's representatives whereby she will either take up her residence on one of the other islands, or leave the country, doubtless to go to England. She has a private income of about ten thousand a year, which will not be interfered with.

Preparing for a Convention.

PITTSBURG, March 13.—The committee of arrangements is in the city preparing for the convention here of the Society of American Florists, Aug. 20, 21, 22 and 24. The committee is composed as follows: Edwin Lonsdale of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, president of the florists' society; William J. Stewart, secretary, of Boston; T. B. Beatty, treasurer, of Oil City, Pa.; P. O'Mara of Jersey City, W. N. Rudd of Chicago, J. C. Remison of Sioux City, Elijah A. Wood of Denver, Jackson Dawson of Jamaica Plain, Mass.; Grove P. Rawson of Elmira, N. Y.; H. Rattles, Hon. John Burton and George C. Watson of Philadelphia. One thousand delegates are expected at the convention in August.

Will Open Indian Lands.

BALTIMORE, March 11. — Cardinal Gibbons' sermon preached over a week ago on the "Sacred Scriptures" was eulogized in the Methodist Episcopal conference Sunday by Rev. A. Did you ever see one of the famous waterproof Interlined Collars or Cuffs? It's very easy to tell, for they are all marked this way

They are the only Interlined Collars and Cuffs, and are made of linen, covered with waterproof "CELLULOID." They'll stand right by you day in and day out, and they are all marked this way

The first cost is the only cost, for they keep clean a long time, and when soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth—that is the kind marked this way

These collars and cuffs will outlast six linen ones. The wearer escapes laundry trials and laundry bills—no chafed neck and no wilting down if you get a collar marked this way

Ask your dealer first, and take nothing that has not above trade mark, if you desire perfect satisfaction. All others are imitations absolutely.

If you can't find collars or cuffs marked this way, we will send you a sample postpaid on receipt of price. Collars, 25 cts. each. Cuffs, 50 cts. pair. Give your size and say whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Attorney General Olney, in his argument in support of the income tax before the supreme court, said that the constitutional contention of the plaintiffs simmers down to two points. One is that the income tax is a direct tax and must be imposed according to the rule of apportionment, and the other is based upon the alleged violation of the constitution with regard to uniformity.

He declared that whether an income tax is what the constitution describes as a "direct" tax is a question as completely concluded by repeated adjudications as any question can be. It is not a direct tax within the meaning of the constitution, unless five concurring judgments of this court have all been erroneous.

Mr. Olney devoted considerable time to the meaning of the word "uniform" as applied to the collection of impost, excises, etc., declaring that the word had a territorial application and no other. The power to tax, he said, is for practical use and is necessarily to be adapted to the practical conditions of human life. These are never the same for any two persons and as applied to any community, however small, are infinitely diversified. Nothing has been oftener declared by courts and jurists, than that absolute equality of taxation is impossible.

QUEEN LIL SENTENCED.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 13.—Hawaiian advices received here state that the ex-queen has been sentenced to five years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $5,000. She is still confined in a room in the executive building, where she was placed on the day of her arrest, and is under military guard. Just what is to be done with Liliuokalani is a question which the government has not yet answered. Certain it is that she will not be kept in the executive building for five years or placed in the Oahu prison.

Undoubtedly before the end of the month some proposition will be received from the ex-queen's representatives whereby she will either take up her residence on one of the other islands, or leave the country, doubtless to go to England. She has a private income of about ten thousand a year, which will not be interfered with.

Rawson of Elmira, N. Y.; H. Rattles, Hon. John Burton and George C. Watson of Philadelphia. One thousand delegates are expected at the convention in August.
